Karen,

Can our attorney get an extended version of this video that would show Ms. Frost exiting the bus.

Sincerely,

Sherry – Can you ask Metra for an extended version of the video. A couple of things – it does not appear that the lady in red fell over. It was the person across from her that fell over. I want to see the person that fell over exit the bus when she gets to her stop - that is why I would ask for the video from the before the incident through the time Ms. Frost exited the bus. Thanks. Mark.

Importance: High

Mark, i just got off the phone with Ms. Brandy Frost (the lady in the red shirt on the video) stating she fell from her seat on bus, Rt.9 3:00PM outbound on 8/7/26. After I viewed the video I called her back and advised that the city was not negligent that the other vehicle was trying to pull out in front of the bus when our driver applied the breaks. Ms. Frost said even though she went to the hospital and was injured because she fell from her seat. I stated yes, the city is not liable it would be the other veh. Then a very long 30 sec pause, I finally asked was she still there, she said yes and ok then.

When I originally asked at the beginning of our conversation if she had obtained an attorney her response was "not yet". So, we all know where this is going.

Oh, and she did not report this to Metra until the following day.

As soon as I get this in the system, I will forward what I have to you.

Sincerely,

Sherry Evans
